The Light of the Past

By Jimmy Knezetic

I hear the speaker call my name...
My eyes fill with surprise.
I suddenly feel miles away
From all my earthly ties.

No longer do I see the red
And black of gowns around me.
I'm entering a world of thought
Far from reality.

I close my eyes a moment
And I live it all again;
The past that once was present
And that seemed would never end.

I ease while thinking of the times
That made me feel so whole
And tense while thinking of the times
That deeply hurt my soul.

Some friends are gone and some remain,
But this does not upset me;
For as we grow we find ourselves
And change is necessary.

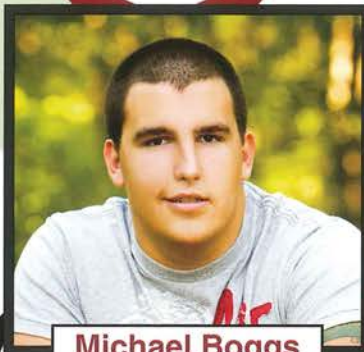

Reflecting on my freshman self,
I think how much I've changed
In mind, body, and soul
With all the knowledge that I've gained.

Although it's time for me to leave
And journey from the nest,
To venture out into the world
And start a brand new quest,

I won't forget the memories
And experiences so vast,
For everything's illuminated
In the light of the past.

Senior Class Officers

Michael Boggs

To the Class of 2009,

As the president of the senior class I would like to thank all of you for giving me this opportunity. Even though my time in office has been short, I've been able to learn and grow from this experience. It's hard to believe our years here are coming to an end. Even though we're about to start a new chapter in our lives, we will cherish the memories forever. Congratulations and good luck to my fellow classmates.

Sincerely,
Mike Boggs President 2009

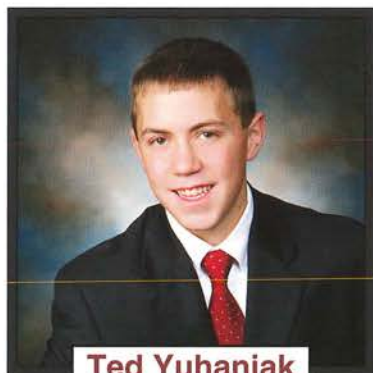

To the Class of 2009,

Thank you for allowing me the privilege and pleasure of serving you as the Senior Class Vice President. Our experiences and memories will always be a special connection between us. Now is the time we begin a new chapter in our lives. Each of you has been created by God for a special purpose. Seek to find it and enrich the lives of those around you. Believe you can do anything because you can. Don't compromise. You are all you've got. Live life like you don't have forever; make each day count. Edmond Burke said, "The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing." Be a part of the good. The world will be different one way or another because of us, the Class of 2009. God's blessings to you for a safe and meaningful journey. I look forward to seeing you again.

Warmest regards,
Mellay E. Gardner V.P. 2009

Mellay Gardner

Ted Yuhaniak

To the Class of 2009:

I would like to congratulate and thank you for the past four years at Salem High School, and for allowing me to serve as your class secretary the past two years; it was a tremendous privilege. I will always look back at the great times I experienced at SHS and be proud I was a part of the class of 2009. The good and bad times we shared have matured each of us and made us who we are today, and in turn have opened the door to a bright future. As we prepare for this, I urge each member of the class to keep in mind all we have had together and may this lead us to success in the next chapter of our lives. I will always treasure the friendships and great times. Thank you once more and best of luck in all that you do.

Sincerely,
Ted Yuhaniak Secretary 2009

To the Class of 2009:

It has been such a rewarding journey going through these four years of high school with all of you. Years from now, we will all look back on the memories made at Salem High, and hopefully be able to cherish those times for the rest of our lives. I urge you to reach out for your dreams and never accept anything but your best. The class of 2009 has so much potential for greatness. As we set out on the different paths of life, I hope all of you are able to use what you learned at Salem High to guide you through the years. I wish you the best of luck with the future, and thank you for allowing me to serve as your class treasurer for the past four years.

God Bless,
Stephanie Paparodis Treasurer 2009

Freshman Year

In 2005, the class of 2009 first walked into Salem High School as scared freshmen. Our class was led by President Suzanne Waterbeck, Vice President Brian Shivers, Secretary Taylor Toothman and Treasurer Stephanie Paparodis.

In August of our freshman year, Hurricane Katrina hit the United States. It was one of the deadliest hurricanes in history.

Now that we were freshmen, we were excited about going to high school dances. Bree Whinnery was Homecoming Queen, Veronica Waite was Sweetheart's Queen and Joe Righetti was crowned Sadies King. Prom Queen and King were Charity Montford and John Lantz.

2005 was a good year for our Salem sports! Both boys and girls cross country teams got first place at state. The boys basketball team went to regionals for the first time in 25 years and the boys track team also went to regionals. The boys track 4 x 200 team and Aiman Scullion both broke school records.

We listened to Kelly Clarkson, Chris Brown, Panic! at the Disco, Pussycat Dolls and All-American Rejects.

We watched movies like "Wedding Crashers," "Mr. and Mrs. Smith" and "Saw II."

Sophomore Year

Our confidence grew as we entered our second year of high school. We were led by President Alexis Thorne, Vice President Taylor Toothman, Secretary Mellay Gardner and Treasurer Stephanie Paparodis.

Morgan Hiltbrand was our Homecoming Queen, Alisha Fata was our Sweetheart's Queen, and Justin Skiba was Sadie Hawkins' King. Morgan Hiltbrand and Justin Skiba were Prom Queen and King.

The girls' cross country team placed first at state and Patrick Gorby placed twelfth. The boys' track team placed second in state. Patrick Gorby broke the state and school record for the 800. The 4 x 200 and 4x400 teams both broke school records. Sarah Brobeck broke the discus record; she got third place at state for discus and eighth for shot.

We listened to top artists: Rascal Flatts, Rihanna, Fall Out Boy and Justin Timberlake.

The movies we watched included "Step Up," "Pursuit of Happyness," "Talledega Nights" and "Borat."

Junior Year

We entered the halls of SHS as juniors. Alexis Thorne was our President, Jay Bates was our Vice President, Ted Yuhaniak was our Secretary and Stephanie Paparodis was our Treasurer.

Sarah Conrad was Homecoming Queen, Lauren Stone was Sweethearts' Queen and Theo Keniston took the Sadie Hawkins' crown. Prom Queen and King were Kathy Ellis and Josh Cosgrove.

The volleyball team made it to the state semi-finals and the girls' cross country team placed sixth at state. Dustin Matak placed eleventh in the 100 meter dash at state, Sarah Brobeck placed third in discus and Lauren Shivers placed twelfth in the 3200 run.

The music we listened to included: Soulja Boy, Boys Like Girls, Fergie, Plain White T's and Taylor Swift.

We watched movies like "Transformers," "I am Legend," "Juno," "Knocked Up," and "Superbad."

Senior Year

Finally, we arrived at our senior year. This was something we had been looking forward to since we were freshmen. Leading us was President Mike Boggs, Vice President Mellay Gardner, Secretary Ted Yuhaniak and Treasurer Stephanie Paparodis.

NEW TEACHERS

Mr. Fawcett graduated from Ohio and Youngstown State Universities with a Bachelors Degree of Science in Education and a Master of Science in Education. He was inspired to become a teacher by "the glamorous, fast- paced lifestyle and celebrity status" he wished to achieve. When he's not teaching, he enjoys running, hockey, bullfighting and competitive eating in the Marshmallow Peeps division. He wishes to leave a quote, "To be the best, you have to beat the best." by Ric Flair

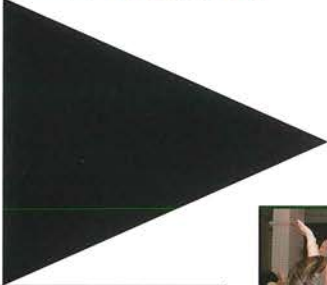

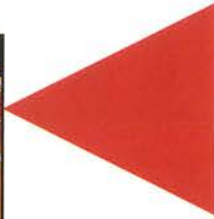

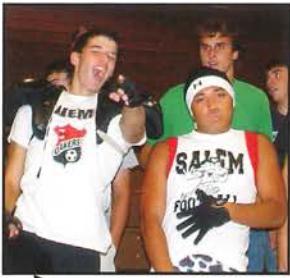

Mrs. Parks attended high school in Canada, moving on to earn a Bachelors Degree in Language Arts from both Ohio State and Kent State Universities. She has three children and five grandchildren. She enjoyed coaching high school students so much she decided to become a classroom teacher. She may not be "new" to most of us, since she has been a sub for Salem since 2002. Her most enjoyable hobbies are jogging, gardening, traveling and reading.

Mr. Carden was encouraged to become a teacher because of all the fun he had in his high school's music program. After accomplishing a Bachelors Degree in Music at the University of Akron and teaching for a while at another school, he decided to teach band in grades 5 - 12 for Salem. In his spare time, Mr. Carden enjoys bike riding, reading, historical movies and playing in jazz groups. He leaves the quote "Work hard, respect others and yourself, and you will succeed."

Grease is the story of two Rydell High School seniors, Danny Zuko and Sandy Dumbrowski, who meet over summer vacation at the beach and reunite the first day back to school. However, Sandy is new at Rydell this year and Danny is not the same as she remembered. He is a real show-off to his friends, the Burger Palace Boys. Crushed, Sandy seeks the help of her new friends, the Pink Ladies. They try to help her get over him, but she's "hopelessly devoted to him." However, with some apologies from Danny and some forgiving from Sandy, they manage to get back together at the Twilight Drive In Theater. Sadly, Danny ruins his chance and Sandy realizes that Danny won't change for her. She sees that she has to change for him and she gets a full-blown bad girl makeover. What she doesn't know is that Danny tried out and made it on the track team to impress her. In the end, both Sandy and Danny had altered their personalities for another when it was completely unnecessary.

Salem High School's performance of the musical Grease was performed on April 17th, 18th and 19th, with a benefit performance on the 21st. The show was headed by Director, Nicole Paolozzi; Musical Director, Attila Samu; Stage Manager, Lori Stouffer; and Choreographer, Carrie Mazzuco. The Musical Arrangement was directed live by Gary Kekel.

Everyone raised money and went to Florida November 13-16, 2008. All members performed at WaltWorld in front of thousands of people. It was a very memorable and fun experience for everyone involved; it was an excellent year! Best of luck to all future band members.

The German club participated in many activities and events this school year. In October of 2008 they had a successful carnation sale for Sweetest Day for the middle school and high school students. The carnations were sold for a dollar each and they raised a lot of money. Also in October they celebrated the Oktoberfest, which is celebrated yearly in Germany. In December they had a Christmas party where food and drinks were provided for everyone who attended. The Karnival, like the Oktoberfest, is also celebrated in Germany. In February they learned about all of the traditions and activities that go on in this month. The club's last event was the Awards Banquet held in April. This final dinner, held at Ala Carte, was where Annaliese Carter, the advisor, presented the members with their awards.

Foreign Exchange Student

Our foreign exchange student is Fabricio Fellsbimo, a student from Joinville, state of Santa Catarina in Brazil. Fabricio, residing with the Floor family, is a sixteen year old junior.

Fabricio enjoys playing soccer, video games and working with computers. For fun, he and his friends go to the movies, pizza places, malls and to soccer games.

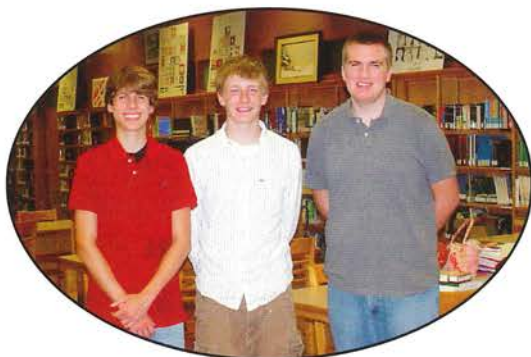

Some interesting facts about life in Brazil are that the driving age is eighteen and the drinking age is sixteen. In Brazil, a Big Mac at McDonalds is fifteen dollars. There are no Pepsi products; only Coke is available. The school hours are from 7:00 am to 5:30 pm, and the students do not get to choose their classes.

Fabricio says that the United States is very different compared to Brazil. The schools are different as well as the culture. He will return to Brazil this summer but hopes to someday return to America.

O.W.E

O.W.E. (Occupational Work Experience) and C.B.I. (Career Based Intervention program) is a cooperative effort between the school and the business community. Such a program requires the cooperation of employers willing to hire and train these students. Without the employer, this much needed program would fail. Over the years, hundreds of O.W.E. students have been placed in the businesses and industries of Salem. Many of these former students are still employed in the area, and most with their original employers. Some go onto further education and become foremen, supervisors and managers.

New to the school, the Salem High School Swim Team wasted no time getting their feet wet. The team, lead by Salem Alumna, Coach Caroline McDermott as well as captains Dustin Rogers and Kaylyn Beiling, dove into training four days a week at the Salem Community Center. The team members made themselves known to the area while participating in four in-season meets. To top off their season, they competed in the OHSA Sectional Tournament held at the University of Akron. Although they are technically a club, members can still receive their 'Varsity S' by meeting the requirements of the Athletic Department.

Project Prom

Above (L-R): Lauren Crowell, Cassie Hoopes, Libbi Williams and Christina Pietrzak.

For many upperclassmen, spring is a synonym for prom preparations. That being said, there are those who cannot afford the costs that hide behind the sequins and beadwork. Project Prom, however, is there to help. This non-profit organization of students is on the hunt for dresses to be donated from January to March. In April, they hold a 'shopping day' where anyone who feels they cannot afford a dress is welcome to pick out a dress for free. Project Prom's main purpose is to ensure that all girls can afford to attend prom.

Project Prom is advised by Mrs. Bosheff and has a four member planning committee made up of Libbi Williams, president; Christina Pietrzak, vice president; Cassie Hoopes, secretary and Lauren Crowell, treasurer.

Girls' Track

The girl's track team had an outstanding season. The team was coached by Coach Hopple and assisted by Coach Angus. The long days at practice surely paid off even if the team didn't finish the season with a trip to state. With bodies pumping with adrenaline and excitement at each meet, the determined girls came out with nothing but a feeling of accomplishment. This mighty girls' team strived for excellence and that is just what they achieved.

Mrs. Dye

Teacher of the Year

The 2009 Yearbook Staff has chosen to honor Mrs. Melanie Dye for her many years of service to the students and staff of Salem High School, as well as to the entire community. Mrs. Dye graduated from Western Beaver High School where her love of English and encouragement by teachers pushed her to be a teacher. She then attended Edinboro University in Edinboro, Pennsylvania. There, she received her Bachelors Degree in English and continued her education at Kent State University where she earned her Masters Degree. She married her high school sweetheart, who many of us remember as our principal at Southeast Elementary, and raised a beautiful family. Her son, Duke, is an optometrist, and her daughter, Heather, is a "headhunter" and a full time mom. Cade, Jaret and Maryn love being read to by their grandmother and being visited by the "sock man."

After twenty-seven years teaching English at Salem High School, Mrs. Dye has seen it all, including shorts and skirts getting shorter every year; ("I didn't think it was possible; I was wrong!") and boys wearing dresses to school; ("He was immediately sent home."). Although Mrs. Dye can't say she has a favorite moment, she is thankful to the staff and students for providing her with cherished memories. It was, however, easy for her to think of her favorite things to see in the halls. Mrs. Dye loves the QUAKER CRAZIES! She also loves the school spirit the student body has and enjoys seeing the camaraderie between the students. "Although the students don't all agree," she says, "when there is truly a need, our students can and will rise to the occasion and support each other." When asked if there was anything she wanted to share about herself with the student body, she replied "They already know too much about me!"

In conclusion, Mrs. Dye chose to share a favorite quote from poet Langston Hughes that she feels is a great philosophy to live by:

*"Hold fast to dreams for if dreams die
life is a broken winged bird that cannot fly"*

The Yearbook Staff would like to again congratulate Mrs. Dye and thank her for all her cooperation. We wish her all the best and hope she will continue to make wonderful memories while enriching the lives of those who walk through these halls.

*"My secret desire... to be Quaker Sam
for just one football game... seriously!"*

*"My date? Who else
but Mr. Dye!"*

"The only time you'll see me in a swim suit!"

*"The tide rises, the tide falls,
The twilight darkens, the curfew calls..."

Suehad Awadallah

It has been an honor being an editor for my senior year. It has been a great experience working with all the different people. Although it was a stressful and tough journey, it is the final product that is the reward. Thank you for letting me be a part of all your photos and memories.

Mistee Shadle

It has been a successful year thanks to the staff. The road to the end has been a long one but an enjoyable one also. Thanks to all the underclassmen for helping make my senior year a memorable one. Even though it may have been a rough year at times it was still worth it. Good luck and have fun next year to the returning staff members and the newbies!!!

Leah Minamyier

I would like to give a big thanks to the yearbook staff for helping make one of the best yearbooks I've seen. Even though it was a long and sometimes stressful year, we did it! Good luck to everyone on staff next year. When things get a little crazy just remember to have fun! Everything will come together in the end. It was a great experience helping to create this book and I hope everyone enjoys.

Rebecca Skiba

This year has been a fun and challenging experience. At times it was quite stressful but we all pulled through. I would like to thank all of the other editors for allowing me to join them as an editor and a big thank you to all of the staff for working so hard.

Kate Phillips

I would like to thank the yearbook staff and my fellow editors for a year of hard work and fun. Hopefully everyone can enjoy the staff's efforts. I would also like to thank Mrs. Parks for all of her hard work and dealing with a class full of only girls (and Pete). Good luck to Rebec and next year's staff!

Allison Ward

This year has been a difficult one for everyone to get through but we made it and hope everyone enjoys this book. I'm happy to have been given the opportunity to be an editor and best wishes to next years yearbook staff!

Kate Phillips

Hey Kate,

Thanks for being the kind of daughter that makes us laugh not cry, who has friends we really like and who always lets us pick where we go to eat. Thanks for not making fun of the way we dress (boring) or the kind of music we like (awesome) and for trying to educate us on the bands you like, even though we get them all mixed up. Thanks for doing well in school. Even though you'll be far away next year, remember we'll always be there cheering for you believing in you, and loving you.

Mom & Dadd

Brian Shivers

Mistee Shadle

To our sweet little Mistee Mae,

How can we begin to tell you how proud of you we are? It is amazing to us how much you have grown and bloomed into a beautiful young lady. You are such a sensitive, caring person who is so full of life. But don't get us wrong; You still have that bossy streak that takes over, like when you were 2 years old, lecturing your dad, saying "No! No, you don't!" shaking your finger at him! We have all the faith in you that you will do well and aspire to great things. We wish you luck and happiness in all you do! Good luck at Akron University and may all your dreams come true even if it lands you in Beverly Hills!

We love you sis!
Mom, Dad, Gregg,
Dude & Kenworth (your best friend!)

Jessie Dillon

Jessie,

Wow! Look at you - all grown up and ready for your next adventure!

We have no doubt you will be a success at whatever you choose to do. Your compassion and strong spirit will take you far.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Cody, Sarah & Rob

Mellay Gardner

Dear Mellay,

You have so richly blessed our lives as we have watched you grow into the strong, confident and beautiful young lady you are today. We are continually amazed by how you face and overcome life's overwhelming challenges. Your determination and resilience are an inspiration to many. Continue to follow your heart with passion and compassion in all you do. We are proud of all you have accomplished so far and wish you continued success at Grove City College. May your life always bring glory to God and be a blessing to others.

All our love, prayers and support always,
Mom & Dad

Tim Eddinger

Tim,

I can't believe you are so grown up now. It seems like only yesterday you were following your sister around the house asking her to go play in the "backyard." I have truly enjoyed watching you grow into the fine young man that you are now. I am so proud of you and wish nothing but the best for you as you continue your education and your life as an adult. You are my "favorite son." I love you!

Mom

Allison Ward

"Daughters do wonderful things. Not the wonderful things you expected them to do. Different things. Astonishing things. Better than you ever dreamed."

- Marion C. Garretty

Alli,

Through the years (and tears) you have brought us so much joy and happiness. Our hearts overflow with pride each time we look at you and see the strong, honest, intelligent young woman that you have become... and then we realize that we are just now seeing a glimpse of what is to come. We know you "will dance."

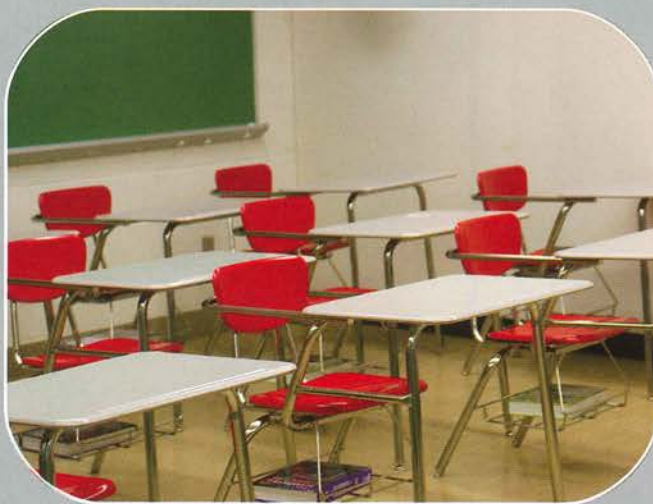

We love you,
